TOWN OF HERNDON, VIRGINIA

ORDINANCE

OCTOBER 26, 2021

Ordinance, to consider zoning ordinance text amendment, ZOTA #21-03, to amend Chapter 78 (ZONING), Article VII (Use Regulations), Article VIII (Accessory Uses), to revise or establish new limitations on size, bulk, and setbacks for accessory dwelling units; to eliminate the special exception requirement for accessory dwelling units in certain situations; and to eliminate the minimum age and physical, mental, or cognitive disability requirements for accessory dwelling units

Sec. 78-71.1. - Residential use category.

- (a) Characteristics. The residential use category is characterized by the residential occupancy of a dwelling or residential facility by an individual or a household meeting the definition of a family. Tenancy is arranged on a month-to-month or longer basis.
- (b) Examples. Example use types include single-family detached dwellings, duplex dwellings, multi-family dwellings, assisted living for the elderly or persons with disabilities, or townhouse dwellings. Group homes are also included as described in the Code of Virginia, § 15.2-2291.
- (c) Similar use types, accessory uses and prohibited use types.
  - (1) Transient lodging. Transient lodging is not permitted in the residential use category. Transient lodging, including, hotels, motels, inns, conference centers, boarding houses and lodging houses, are in the lodging businesses category.
  - (2) Convalescent home. Convalescent home is in the institutional and community services use category.
  - (3) Home-based businesses. Home-based businesses, including childcare in the home, are permitted as accessory uses that are subject to additional standards. (See section 78-80.5).
  - (4) Bed and breakfast and short-term rentals. Bed and breakfast establishments are permitted as accessory uses subject to additional standards in 78-80.4(d), bed and breakfast establishment and 78-80.4(u), short-term rentals.
  - (5) Accessory dwelling. Accessory dwelling units are permitted as accessory uses subject to additional standards. See Article VIII, Accessory Uses and Structures. As listed in Section 78-80.4(a).
- (d) Residential use category specific use standards. All uses shall comply with all applicable standards in this chapter. In addition, the following standards shall apply, unless, in the judgment of the reviewing authority, exceptional circumstances warrant adjustment:

***

(3) Establishment of unauthorized dwelling units prohibited. Establishment of an unauthorized dwelling unit in any building or division of a dwelling unit is prohibited and subject to the following except when legally established as an accessory use pursuant to Section 78-80.4(a).

1

- a. Change in use or special exception. Establishment of an unauthorized dwelling unit in any building or division of a dwelling unit is not permitted except in accordance with procedures for a change in use as authorized by the town or unless an accessory dwelling unit has been approved through a special exception.
- ba. Conditions constituting an unauthorized dwelling unit. An unauthorized dwelling unit within a building shall be presumed to have been created when contiguous areas for living, sleeping, eating, cooking, and sanitation are designed in such a manner as to establish a distinct, separate, and self-contained living or housekeeping unit. The existence of any one of the following conditions shall be considered to be an unauthorized dwelling unit, when established absent approval of a legally established accessory dwelling pursuant to 78-80.4(a).
  - A secured internal access/connection is maintained that prevents full access to all of the common living areas (exclusive of private bedroom/bath areas) to all occupants of the dwelling unit.
  - 2. More than one assigned address or more than one electric, water or gas meter serving the building.
  - 3. Use of part of a previously approved dwelling unit for an additional dwelling unit providing complete, independent living facilities for a single-family dwelling including provisions for living, sleeping, eating, or sanitation.
- e. Additional procedures. The building official and the zoning administrator may request additional administrative steps, such as the recording of a "declaration of use", when such steps are determined to be warranted by specific conditions, such as a separate exterior entry. The creation of a dwelling unit shall comply with all rules, regulations, ordinances and other requirements of the town of Herndon. Building permits, inspections, and approvals are required for all building, electrical, mechanical, or plumbing work performed. Where a conflict arises between these standards and other requirements, the most restrictive shall govern.

Section 78-80.1. - Accessory uses and structures.

(a) Purpose and intent. Sections 78-80.1 through 78-80.5 authorize the establishment of accessory uses and structures that are incidental and customarily subordinate to principal uses. The town's intent is to allow a broad range of accessory uses, so long as such uses are located on the same site as the principal use, and so long as they comply with the standards set forth in this section to reduce potentially adverse impacts on surrounding properties. Some accessory uses are required (such as parking), some are permitted by right (such as signs), some are permitted as special exceptions (such as accessory dwelling units) and many are allowed in planned development districts.

- (c) Standards for all accessory uses and structures. The following standards apply to all accessory uses and structures:
  - (1) Relation to principal use. Any accessory use or structure shall directly serve the principal use or structure.
  - (2) Incidental to primary use. Any accessory use or structure be customarily accessory and clearly incidental to the principal use.
  - (3) Subordinate in nature. Any accessory use or structure shall be subordinate in area, extent, and purpose to the principal use or structure. An accessory use may not exceed

- 25 percent of the floor area shared with the principal use, and any combination of more than two accessory uses may not exceed 50 percent of the floor area shared with the principal use, unless otherwise specified in this section.
- (4) Ownership. Any accessory use or structure shall be owned or operated by the same entity owning the principal use or structure.
- (5) Location. Any accessory use or structure shall be located on the same lot as the principal use or structure or on a contiguous lot.
- (6) Compliance. Together with the principal use or structure, any accessory use or structure shall not violate the bulk, density, parking, landscaping, or open space standards of this chapter. Therefore, all accessory uses and structures shall conform to the applicable requirements of this chapter, including the use regulations in Article VII, Use Regulations, and the dimensional standards in individual zoning districts.

Sec. 78-80.3. - Accessory structure standards.

Accessory structures and features shall comply with the following zoning-district specific standards.

- (a) Accessory structures in residential districts. Accessory structures in residential district shall meet the following standards, unless otherwise specified in this section:
  - (1) Location. Accessory structures, except fences and walls, shall not be located within a required setback or required side yard, except accessory buildings on corner lots may be located within the side yard. Accessory structures except fences and walls shall be located so the structure is not closer than:
    - a. Five feet to any alley line;
    - b. Two feet to any side or rear lot line, except for a townhouse dwelling lot, where the accessory structure may be located on the side or rear lot line.
    - Ten feet to the principal dwelling for any single-family detached or duplex dwelling.
  - (2) Maximum height. The height of an accessory structure shall not exceed the lesser of the height of the principal structure on the site, or 15 feet.
  - (3) Maximum floor area. On any lot, the combined floor area of all detached accessory structures shall not be greater than 50 percent of the floor area of the principal structure, unless otherwise specified in this chapter.
  - (4) Residential occupancy. Residential occupancy shall not be allowed in any accessory structure except under the provisions of section 78-80.4, accessory dwelling unit.
  - (5) Temporary accessory structures. Temporary accessory structures shall be governed by the procedures and standards of section 78-155.6(e)(4), temporary use site plan, and Article IX, Temporary Uses and Structures.

4

21-0-22

- (6) Required approvals. On lots with single-family detached or duplex dwellings, the construction, replacement or enlargement of an accessory building when the alteration is:
  - a. Less than 750 square feet may require a building permit and a building location survey in accordance with section 78-155.6(e)(1).
  - b. Seven hundred fifty square feet of floor area or more must be approved through a single lot development plan in accordance with section 78-155.6(e)(2).

***

Sec. 78-80.4. - Standards for specific accessory uses and structures by use type.

Accessory uses and structures listed below shall comply with the following specific standards.

- (a) Accessory dwelling unit. An accessory dwelling unit is permitted in the zoning districts specified in Table 78-80.2(c) and shall comply with the following standards:
  - (1) Special exception required. An accessory dwelling unit shall be permitted by special exception in accordance with section 78-155.3 and Article VIII, Accessory Use Regulations. A special exception shall be required when an internal accessory dwelling unit is proposed in a single family attached townhouse.
  - (2) Compliance with building code and zoning standards. An accessory dwelling unit shall comply with all applicable building code and development standards. for dwelling units in the zoning district in which the accessory dwelling unit will be located. An accessory dwelling unit shall also comply with all applicable standards for the principal dwelling.
  - (3) No mobile homes or recreational vehicles as accessory dwellings. Mobile homes, recreational vehicles, travel trailers, manufactured homes, and the like shall not be used as accessory dwelling units.
  - (4) One accessory unit per lot. There shall be no more than one accessory dwelling unit on a lot in addition to the principal dwelling.
  - (5) Size limit.
    - a. Internal or attached. The floor area of an internal or attached accessory dwelling unit shall not exceed 35 40 percent of the gross floor area of the principal dwelling, or 1,200 square feet, whichever is less.
    - b. Detached. The maximum gross floor area of a detached accessory dwelling unit shall not exceed 900 square feet.
      - 1. Covered or screened porches do not count towards the maximum floor area. Porches otherwise enclosed do not count towards the maximum floor area unless the space is conditioned.
      - 2. Detached accessory dwelling units and any associated porches count towards the minimum lot coverage allowed in the underlying district.

(6) Location.

- a. Detached accessory dwelling units are limited to the rear yard. A detached accessory dwelling unit shall have a minimum setback of 10 feet from the rear and side property lines and 10 feet from the principal structure.
  - Existing accessory structures. A detached accessory dwelling may be incorporated into a detached accessory structure that does not meet the - above setbacks provided the detached accessory structure legally existed on or before October 26, 2021.
