Clark Hedrick Named Vice Mayor by Resolution

Herndon, VA (January 4, 2023) - Town of Herndon Mayor Sheila A. Olem and members of the Herndon Town Council approved a resolution naming Clark Hedrick as Vice Mayor for the 2023-2024 term.

Traditionally, the councilmember who receives the highest number of votes during the general town elections is named to the post of Vice Mayor. Hedrick received the highest number of votes during the election on November 8.

Hedrick is serving his first term on the Herndon Town Council. He has previously served on the town's Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA). An attorney for the federal government, Hedrick holds undergraduate degrees in international business and political science from Biola University, and a law degree from The George Washington University Law School.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, a federal contractor specializing in AI and technology solutions, live in Herndon with their three children; their fourth child is due this year.
