

NEWS RELEASE

CANDIDATES SET FOR HERNDON TOWN COUNCIL ELECTIONS Election Day is November 5

Herndon, VA (July 15, 2024) – Candidates for the office of Mayor and Town Council for the 2025-2026 term are as follows:

Pradip Dhakal and Keven LeBlanc, Jr., are running for the office of Mayor. Both currently serve as councilmembers. The town's current Mayor, Sheila Olem, is not seeking reelection.

Candidates for the six Town Council seats for the 2025-2026 term include Naila Alam, Tamim Chowdhury, Cesar A. del Aguila, Kelvin Garcia, Clark A. Hedrick, Michael T. Lloyd, Stevan M. Porter, Soma Ramesh, and Alexis "Alex" Reyes. Alam, del Aguila and Hedrick serve on the current Town Council. Current Councilmember Donielle Scherff is not seeking reelection.

Election Day is Tuesday, November 5, 2024. Polling locations for town elections correlate with locations for national elections, which are also held that day. Elections in the Town of Herndon are administered by Fairfax County; visit the county online at <https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/topics/voting-and-elections> and the Virginia Department of Elections at <https://www.elections.virginia.gov/> for additional information.

Media Contact: Anne Papa
703/435-6800 X2010
anne.curtis@herndon-va.gov